CH Mack CEO Takes Part In BIOSTART's Digital Panel

Cincinnati, Ohio — President and CEO, Chris Boue will serve as one of five local life science and business leaders taking part in a digital panel put together by biotech business incubator, BIOSTART on attracting talent, building leadership teams and the necessary company mindset for effective growth.

The panel will be available to view on DialedIn.org and will focus on what is necessary for both start-ups and established companies to identify the right talent for their critical goals, while also discussing how budget, location, existing team and other factors play a part in what's possible. Boue gives insight into new types of incentives and unique traits that have driven results for CH Mack.

Other panelists include: Pandy Pridemore, Principal Consultant, The Human Resource USA, LLC.; Lisa Bostrom, Human Resources, CTI Clinical Trial and Consulting Services; Stefan Antonsson, Principal at Odin Pharma Consulting and member of Queen City Angels; and Rick D'Augustine, Executive-In-Residence, CincyTech.

The panel will be moderated by Carol Frankenstein, President of BIOSTART.
